there be any praise, think on these things.

Give it a try! Find you a place where you can spend 10 min, 20 min, or an hour, just talking to Jesus, looking at some verses, apply those Scriptures to your life and see if it doesn't make a difference in you spiritually, physical-ly, and mentally.

If it was good enough for Jesus, it should be good enough for us!

Personal Devotions

Mark 1:35-37 And in the morning, rising up a great while before day, he went out, and departed into a solitary place, and there prayed. 36 And know

Simon and they that were with him followed after him. 37 And when they had found him, they said unto him, All men seek for thee.

Jesus got up a long time before daylight and went to a place where He could be alone. Jesus gave the perfect example of why personal devotion time is important.

Many times we are surrounded by tasks, family, and distractions of life, and we find it hard to concentrate on our own spiritual well-being. Time alone clears your mind. Time alone helps you to concentrate on an effective prayer life. Time alone lets you study and pray with openness that would otherwise be hindered or even disregarded if we were around others.

Whether you get up early, like Jesus, and find you a solitary place, or steal away during the day to be alone, or even late at night find that place where you can read and reflect, you need a time of personal devotion.

Daily devotions give us a spiritual discipline that helps us to get to better know God. Daily devotions helps us to stay connected to Him. Daily devotions let us study with a clear mind to receive Truth. Daily devotions allow us to worship freely and uninhibited. Daily devotions are like a shelter amid the storms of life, there may be things going on all around you, but you are in that place of solitude and non-worry.

Each of us should work on a time of the day, that we can escape the hustle and bustle of life and seek out that place where we can relax, think upon the things of the Lord and become rejuvenated spiritually.

Philippians 4:8 (KJV) 8 Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if
